Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-43 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Child et al [Child 6,801,946 B1].

3. As per claim 1, Child discloses A method of providing for a server on a computer, comprising
 - a. providing for communicating with a first client [Child, first user, col 26 lines 1-64], wherein said first client performs a method comprising:
 - i. providing for reading a portable memory element [Child, removable memory, col 3 lines 25-30];

- ii. providing for obtaining passcode (i.e.: id and password) information necessary to access data from said portable memory element [Child, userID, user password, col 5 lines 32-52 et seq]; and
 - iii. providing for authenticating said passcode information [Child, authentication type, col 21 lines 35-45];
 - b. providing for providing a first passkey (i.e.: password) to said first client if said passcode information is authentic for said portable memory element [Child, first user ID and password, col 26 lines 1-64];
 - c. providing for communicating with at least one second client [Child, second user, col 1-64];
 - d. providing for receiving a second passkey from said at least one second client [Child, second user ID and password, col 1-64]; and
 - e. providing for enabling said at least one second client to communicate with said first client if said second passkey corresponds to said first passkey [Child, first matches to second, col 26 lines 1-64].
4. As per claim 2 Child discloses the operation of providing for communicating with a first client comprises providing for encrypting signals that are sent to said first client, and decrypting signals that are received from said first client [Child, first matches to second, col 26 lines 1-64].

5. As per claim 3 Child discloses said portable memory element comprises a memory card, a flash memory card or a SmartCard [Child, smartcard, col 21 lines 35-45].

6. As per claim 4 Child discloses said data comprises medical information of a person who is capable of providing said passcode information necessary to access data from said portable memory element [Child senior admin, col 17 lines 25-35].

7. As per claim 5 Child discloses said passcode information comprises at least one fingerprint of a person associated with said portable memory element [Child, fingerprint, col 21 lines 35-45].

8. As per claim 6 Child discloses said passcode information comprises either alphanumeric information or biometric information provided by a person associated with said portable memory element [Child, biological, col 3 lines 37].

As per claim 7 Child discloses said first client is mobile as inherent features of Internet devices.

9. As per claim 8 Child discloses providing for enabling said first client either to read information from, or to record information to, said portable memory device if said passcode information is authentic for said portable memory element [Child, removable memory, col 3 lines 25-30].

10. As per claim 9 Child discloses said information from said first client comprises voice information, data from a medical instrument, data from a keyboard or keypad, or handwritten data [Child, input device, col 3 lines 1-15].

11. As per claim 10 Child discloses identifying a level of authority of said first client, and controlling access to said data responsive to said level of authority [Child senior admin, col 17 lines 25-35].

12. As per claim 11 Child discloses providing for a first user associated with said first client to provide said first passkey to at least one second user associated with at least one second client so that said at least one second user can provide said second passkey that corresponds to said first passkey [Child first and second user, col 26 lines 1-64].

13. As per claim 12 Child discloses the operation of providing for communicating with a second client comprises providing for encrypting signals that are sent to said second client, and decrypting signals that are received from said second client [Child, encryption key, col 9 lines 23-43].

As per claim 13 Child discloses providing for enabling said at least one second client either to read information from, or to record information to, said portable memory device if said second passkey corresponds to said first passkey [Child first matches second, col 26 lines 1-64].

14. As per claim 14 Child discloses providing for interfacing with a CORBAMED system [Child, Internet, col 3 lines 32].

15. As per claim 15 Child discloses said CORBAMED system comprises a Terminology Query Service server, a Clinical Observation Access Service server, and a Resource Access Decision server [Child, Internet, col 3 lines 32].

16. As per claim 16 Child discloses providing for said first client to read at least one trait from said portable memory element and providing for receiving said at least one trait (i.e.: patient characteristics) from said first client [Child serveral attributes, col 5 lines 32-39].

17. As per claim 17 Child discloses communicating said at least one trait to said CORBAMED system and communicating data from said CORBAMED system corresponding to said at least one trait to at least one of said first client and said at least one second client [Child serveral attributes, col 5 lines 32-39].

Art Unit: 2142

18. As per claim 18 Child discloses said at least one trait is defined in accordance with a Health Level 7 (HL7) specification [Child serveral attributes, col 5 lines 32-39].

19. As per claim 19 Child discloses storing information from either said first client or said at least one second client in at least one database operatively associated with said CORBAMED system [Child, database, col 1 lines 32-40].

20. Claims 20-43 contain the similar limitations set forth in claims 1-19. Therefore claims 20-43 are rejected for the same rationale set forth in claims 1-19.
